Message from the Executive Director NB Filmmakers' Co-operative

Welcome to the 10th anniversary edition of the Silver Wave Film Festival. It's hard to believe that a decade has passed since our first modest festival unspooled at UNB in the fall of 2001.

In those days, we were hard pressed to find enough New Brunswick films to fill the limited slots available. That is certainly not the case today where we have scores of short comedies, dramas, documentaries, experimental and animated films to exhibit.

The past 10 years, we have been witness to an exciting time of growth in the NB filmmaking community and, the festival has become a cornerstone of the activities of the New Brunswick Filmmakers' Co-operative each year proudly celebrating the bountiful harvest.

I hope you will have the chance to partake in the smorgasbord of cinematic treats, parties and other activities in store this year. Finally, I would like to turn the spotlight onto our wonderful sponsors, government supporters, volunteers and festival goers who make anything possible,

Dim the lights and roll the magic,

Tony Merzetti
Executive Director, NB Filmmakers' Co-op

Message from the President NB Filmmakers' Co-operative

When the Silver Wave Film Festival was created by the New Brunswick Filmmakers' Co-operative 10 years ago its mandate was simple: to showcase independent films and filmmakers from all over New Brunswick

Since its inception the Silver Wave Film Festival has become a real force for the Independent film community throughout New Brunswick. It is through this community that the Silver Wave Film Festival, and the New Brunswick Filmmakers' Co-operative, have been able to make a significant, and poignant, contribution to New Brunswick's overall Arts, Culture, and Community.

In every way the Silver Wave Film Festival has remained true to its humble beginnings: the message has always been the same: we, as New Brunswickers, are here and we are important.

At its 10th year anniversary, thank you for your continued support.

Tim O'Neill, President, NB Filmmakers' Co-op

Message du Directeur Général de la NB Filmmakers' Cooperative

Bienvenue au 10^{ième} anniversaire du festival du Film Silver Wave. C'est difficile de croire qu'une décennie est passée depuis notre tout premier et modeste festival sans file d'attente à l'Université du Nouveau-Brunswick en automne 2001.

En ces temps-là, nous avions du mal à trouver assez de films Néo-Brunswickois pour combler l'espace disponible mais limité de notre programme. Ce n'est certainement pas le cas aujourd'hui puisque nous avons un grand nombre de courts métrages à vous faire voir comprenant des comédies, drames, documentaires, films expérimentaux et d'animation.

Ces 10 dernières années, nous avons été témoin d'une période de croissance palpitante de la communauté cinématographique et le festival est devenu la pierre angulaire des activités de la NB Filmmakers Cooperative qui chaque année célèbre fièrement son abondante récolte.

J'espère que vous aurez la chance de participer à l'assortiment de gâteries cinématographique, fêtes et autres activités organisées cette année pour vous. Enfin, je tiens à braquer les projecteurs sur nos formidables commanditaires, les agences du gouvernement, les bénévoles et les participants du festival qui rendent tout possible.

Baissez les lumières et place à la magie,

Tony Merzetti
Directeur général, de la NB Filmmakers' Co-op

Message du Président de la NB Filmmakers' Cooperative

Lorsque le festival de Film Silver Wave fut créé, par la New Brunswick Film Co-op, 10 ans passés; son mandat était simple: mettre en valeur les courts-métrages indépendants et les cinéastes de partout au Nouveau-Brunswick.

Depuis sa conception, le Festival de Film Silver Wave est devenu une force réelle pour la communauté du film indépendant à travers tout le Nouveau-Brunswick. C'est grâce à cette communauté que le Silver Wave, et la New Brunswick Filmmakers ' Co-operative, ont été en mesure de faire une importante et émouvante contribution à l'ensemble des arts du Nouveau-Brunswick, de la culture ainsi qu'à la communauté.

Par toutes ses facettes, le Festival de Film Silver Wave a su rester fidèle à ses origines modestes: le message a toujours été le même: nous, les Néo-Brunswickois, sommes ici et nous sommes importants.

En ce 10^{ième} anniversaire, nous vous remercions de votre continuel support.

Tim O'Neill, Président de la NB Filmmakers' Co-op

Message from the Vice President NB Filmmakers' Co-operative

Each year the Silver Wave Film Festival is the perfect occasion to watch films made locally in New Brunswick by New Brunswickers. This showcase of our local talent speaks volumes for the great value this film festival brings for our local filmmakers.

The Silverwave Film Festival is celebrating its 10th anniversary this year and for the past ten years we have seen an increasing amount of local films at the festival. My wish is for this trend to keep on going and grow even more.

I want to thank everyone for supporting the film festival, the filmmakers, the viewers and the wonderful people that work hard behind the scenes to make sure that everything goes on without any issues.

Thank you and Happy Silver Wave Film Festival!

Donovan Richard, Vice President, NB Filmmakers' Co-op

Message du Vice-Président de la NB Filmmakers' Cooperative

A chaque année le "Silver Wave Film Festival" offre la parfaite occasion de montrer les films produit au Nouveau Brunswick par des Néo Brunswickois. Cette démonstration de notre talent local en dit grand à propos de la valeur que ce festival apporte à nos réalisateurs de film local.

Nous célébrons cette année le 10e anniversaire du "Silver Wave Film Festival" et cette dernière décennie nous avons vu la croissance et l'épanouissement de nos cinéastes locaux à ce festival. Mon souhait est que cette tendance continue et s'accroît encore plus.

J'aimerais remercier tous les gens qui appuient ce festival de cinéma, les cinéastes, les visiteurs et les merveilleuses personnes qui travaillent fort dans les coulisses pour s'assurer que tout se passe sans problème.

Merci et bon 'festival du film Silver Wave'!

Donovan Richard, Vice-Président de la New Brunswick Filmmakers' Co-op

Message from the Mayor of Fredericton

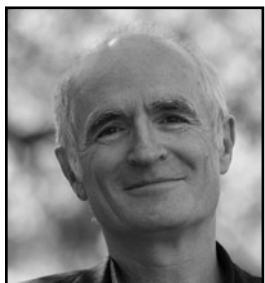

On behalf of my Council colleagues and the citizens of Fredericton, I am pleased to extend a warm welcome to the members of the film industry and visitors attending the Silver Wave Film Festival now celebrating its tenth year!

The City of Fredericton is proud to support this festival through its Arts, Culture & Heritage Funding Program.

We take great pride in our City being one of the world's most intelligent communities, a leader in green technologies and a proud supporter of arts and culture. As home to the NB Filmmakers' Co-op, Fredericton enjoys the many contributions the vibrant film industry makes in our community including creative screenings, both during the Film Festival and throughout the year, and the development of our young filmmakers and animation students.

Once again, welcome! We look forward to another successful festival.

Brad Woodside
Mayor, City of Fredericton

Message from the National Film Board

For a decade, the Silver Wave Film Festival has distinguished itself with superb and diverse programming from the Maritimes, all of Canada and the world.

At the National Film Board of Canada (NFB), we're delighted to partner with Silver Wave on your 10th anniversary edition. We share your commitment to Maritime cinema, working with talented independent filmmakers from our production centres in Moncton and Halifax.

And when you're finished enjoying Silver Wave's great programming, I invite you to check out some of the hundreds of outstanding NFB animated shorts, documentaries and alternative dramas available online at <NFB.ca> as well as on our iPhone and iPad apps.

Have a great festival!

Tom Perlmutter
Government Film Commissioner and Chairperson of the National Film Board of Canada

Message du maire de Fredericton

Au nom des membres du conseil municipal et des citoyens de Fredericton, je souhaite la bienvenue aux professionnels de l'industrie cinématographique et aux visiteurs qui assistent le Festival du film Silver Wave, dont c'est le 10e anniversaire cette année.

La municipalité appuie fièrement ce festival par l'entremise de son Programme de financement des arts, de la culture et du patrimoine.

Fredericton tire une grande fierté de faire partie des communautés les plus ingénieuses du monde, d'être un chef de file dans le domaine des technologies vertes et de soutenir les arts et la culture. Foyer de la NB Filmmakers' Co-op, Fredericton profite des nombreux apports d'une industrie cinématographique dynamique, notamment des projections originales pendant le festival et aussi le reste de l'année, et l'épanouissement du talent de nos jeunes cinéastes et étudiants en animation.

Encore une fois, bienvenue! À n'en pas douter, le festival sera une réussite cette année encore!

Brad Woodside
Maire, Ville de Fredericton

Message du L'Office national du film du Canada

Depuis dix ans, le Festival du film Silver Wave se distingue par sa programmation riche et diversifiée provenant des provinces maritimes, du reste du Canada et du monde.

L'Office national du film du Canada (ONF) est ravi de s'associer au Silver Wave à l'occasion de sa 10e édition. En effet, l'ONF partage votre engagement à l'égard du cinéma des Maritimes, comme en témoigne sa collaboration avec de talentueux cinéastes indépendants depuis ses centres de production de Moncton et Halifax.

Une fois que vous aurez profité de l'excellente programmation du Silver Wave, je vous invite à regarder des centaines de productions exceptionnelles – courts métrages d'animation, documentaires et fictions alternatives – de l'ONF à <ONF.ca>, ainsi que sur vos iPhone et iPad.

Bon festival!

Tom Perlmutter
Commissaire du gouvernement à la cinématographie et président de l'Office national du film du Canada

Andrew Cochran

Message from CBC Television

CBC is delighted to be part of the Silver Wave Film Festival once again in 2010 as they celebrate their 10th Anniversary. Such a Festival could not take place without the tireless work of the organizers and volunteers to pull off such a great festival year after year.

CBC recognizes how valuable it is to have New Brunswick stories told by New Brunswick filmmakers and Silver Wave embodies that spirit.

CBC folks will be out and about during the festival and looking forward to seeing some great films and shorts.

We're back again this year with the CBC 3-2-1 Award and will reveal the winner at the Silver Wave Awards on Saturday, November 6th.

Joining me at the Silver Wave Film Festival this year, from our CBC regional program office Peter Hall, Sr. Manager of Non-News Programming. If you see us during the Festival, don't hesitate to talk with us about how the CBC could be part of your plans for the coming year.

Best regards

Andrew Cochran
Managing Director, CBC Maritimes

Message de la télévision de CBC

Radio-Canada est heureux de faire partie à nouveau en 2010, du Festival de film Silver Wave, alors qu'ils célèbrent leur 10^{ème} anniversaire. Un tel festival ne pourrait avoir lieu sans le travail acharné des organisateurs et des bénévoles qui année après année, contribuent à cette grande fête.

Radio-Canada reconnaît combien il est précieux d'avoir des histoires du Nouveau-Brunswick racontées par des cinéastes du Nouveau-Brunswick et Silver Wave incarne cet esprit.

Les gens de Radio-Canada seront bien présents pendant le festival et impatients de voir les longs et courts métrages.

Nous sommes de retour cette année avec le prix CBC 3-2-1 et nous dévoilerons le gagnant à la remise des prix Silver Wave, samedi, le 6 Novembre .

Joignez-vous à nous cette année au Festival de film Silver Wave , à partir de notre bureau régional de Radio-Canada, avec Peter Hall. Si vous nous voyez pendant le festival, n'hésitez pas à nous parler de la façon dont la SRC pourrait faire partie de vos plans pour l'année à venir.

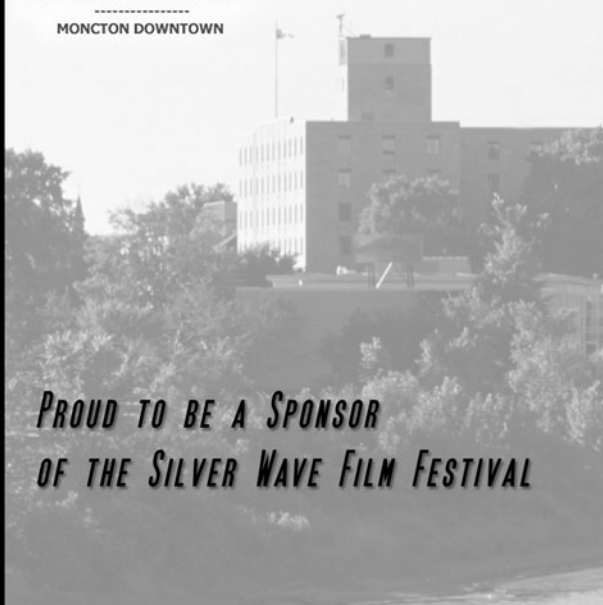

Cordialement

Andrew Cochran

Summerhood

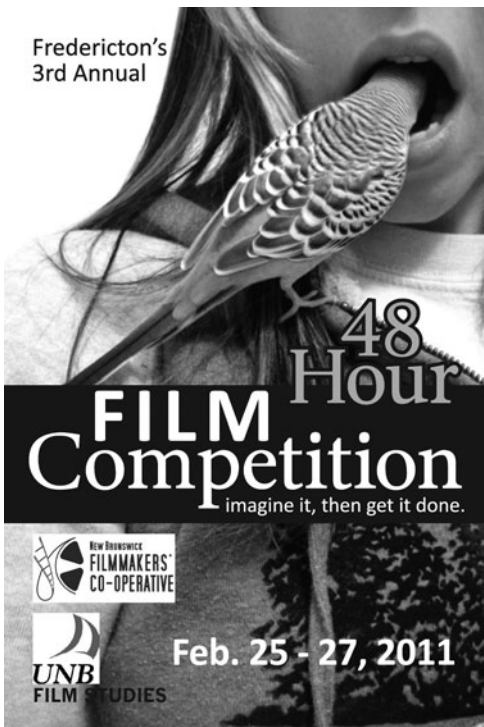

Director/Writer: Jacob Medjuck/Producer: Jacob Medjuck, Paul McNeill/Cast: John Cusack (Narrator), Christopher McDonald, Joe Flaherty, Lucian Maisei/Length: 96:00/Website: <http://www.summerhood.com/Halifax/Nova Scotia/Canada>

Halifax filmmaker Jacob Medjuck's long-awaited summer camp comedy has arrived with an industrial-strength sense of humour, a touch of melancholy and a killer 80s soundtrack. With marvelous narration by Hollywood heavyweight John Cusack, Summerhood chronicles a pivotal summer in the life of a 10-year-old nicknamed Fetus, who falls head over heels for the camp's local preteen beauty. Fetus and his posse have earned their title as the summer resort's tricksters and outcasts, as they dedicate their time and energy to sinking paddleboats and meddling with the camp public address system. Blisteringly funny and beautifully written, Summerhood joins Meatballs and Bless the Beasts and the Children in the elite cadre of the best summer camp movies of all time.

Hymn For The Newly Departed

Director/Producer: Marc Savoie/Writer: The Motorleague/Length: 4:00/Contact: nathanwjones@me.com/Moncton, New Brunswick, Canada, 2009

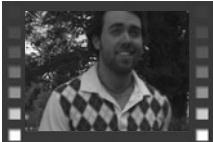

A reversal of roles where the band on stage is the audience and the audience has the instruments and is playing the song. (Hymn For the Newly Departed won the 2009 ECMA for Fans Choice Music Video)

The Dance

Director/Writer: Greg Melanson/Producer: William Beatty, Jon Blizzard, Greg Melanson/Cast: Becky Forbes, Thomas Fanjoy, Aidan Dewhirst/Length: 20:27/Contact: gregm33@gmail.com/Fredericton, New Brunswick, Canada, 2010

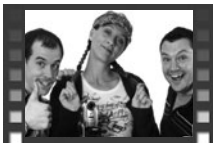

A young woman decides that it's time to move on a year after the sudden disappearance of her boyfriend. (Short Film Venture)

Let Pie Gones Be Pie Gones

Director/Writer: Travis Grant/Producer: Travis Grant and Ryan "Crash" Barton/Cast: Ryan "Crash" Barton, Christopher Hotchkiss, Brandon Barton/Length: 13:00/Contact: travisgrant@gradualupgrade.com/Fredericton, New Brunswick, Canada, 2010

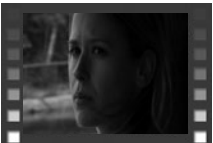

A freshly baked pie's disappearance results in a mad quest for revenge, shaking the very foundation of three roommate's friendship.

Do-Gooders

Director/Writer/Producer: Danny Thebeau/Cast: Tracey Carney, Josh Linton Jason Chisholm/Length: 14:00/Contact: dtheb@nb.sympatico.ca/Dieppe, New Brunswick, Canada, 2010

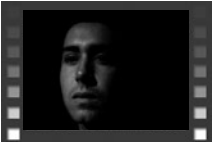

Tired of being hated by their public, in dumb, dumber and dumbest style, the Do-Gooders set out to do good deeds and film them for their internet site. When each attempt leaves them misunderstood and crushed in utter failure, a twist of fate redeems the trio's work.

A Celebration of Sharing

As the 10th Anniversary of the Silver Wave Film Festival approaches I am left with a lump in my throat as I thank the organizers, sponsors, volunteers, filmmakers and attendees for their incredible participation in the success of this event. The Silver Wave Film Festival was created to allow New Brunswickers to see New Brunswick-made films. Is it what we envisioned? I think it's more. We offer people from around the globe an opportunity to see our films, and we present an opportunity for filmmakers from around the globe to share their films. I can see no better way to put New Brunswick filmmakers on the map than to globally share in the experience of telling stories on film. Many, many thanks to all who have made Silver Wave the success we now share.

John Christenson

Ten years ago, a small group of film co-op folks had a big idea. They dreamed of creating an event to recognize and celebrate the small but mighty film and video community in New Brunswick. So they rolled up their sleeves, convinced a few partners and several volunteers, and made it happen. We had a great time... and very little sleep! Over the past decade, the dream has been edited, recut, envisioned in Technicolour, and set to music. It's come to life in cushy-seated theatres, in hotel ballrooms, in community centres, in dimly lit pubs, and in conversations that stretch into the wee hours. It's been downloaded, uploaded, and shared among many. It just keeps growing! The festival is a community celebration, a big party to recognize and to revel in local talents, and it's a family reunion for the rapidly expanding ranks of homegrown filmmakers and film lovers. Kudos to collaboration, co-operation, and celebration! See you at SWFF 2010!

Mel McCarthy

Happy 10th anniversary to the Silver Wave Film Festival! I've been fortunate to be a part of the festival's organizing team for the past five years or so and have seen so many diverse and fantastic films over the years. SWFF is an important cultural event for our province because it showcases locally produced films and filmmakers. It's truly a gem of an event here in New Brunswick and the Atlantic region. After all these years, the Festival still maintains a warm, grass roots vibe that can't be beat. This year we celebrate not just the Festival's anniversary but also the filmmakers, talents and festival-goers who bring this festival to life each year. Congratulations on the big 1-0!

Bunthiv Nou

As a past President of the NB Filmmakers Co-op, it is exciting to consider the prospect of the 10th annual Silver Wave Film Festival. The Co-op was a different place back when I was president in 2000-2001. Literally. It is not in the same place anymore. But more than that, we did not have the constant stream of activity that exists at the co-op today. There are a few key reasons why that is the case but at the top of the list is the creation of the SWFF. When we as a community gather in darkened theatres to see the work of our filmmakers, it inspires others to do the same. As the SWFF has grown and gotten stronger over the years, so has the NB Film Co-op and the filmmaking community as a whole. For this reason alone, I am thrilled to celebrate the 10th annual Silver Wave Film Festival.

Avant de partir (Before Leaving) French with English Subtitles

Filmmaker: Annick Ghijzelings /Length: 20:00/Contact: sandra.demal@gsara.be/Bruxelles, Belgium, 2009

This is the story of twenty children who grew up together in the same school, in the same class and have never been separated. This is also the story of a mother who goes back to school with a camera and re-discovers the childhood memories of school benches, chalk on blackboards and bustling playgrounds. This is the final year together and the sense of fleeting time is becoming apparent. The story of the last day...the day they have to part company, maybe forever. A reflection on Truffaut's brief sentence which states that "when one is a child, everything is always like the first time". This is the story of that inevitable first time separation.

Undeva la mijloc (Somewhere In Between) French with English Subtitles

Filmmaker: Chloé Salembier/Length: 40:00/Contact: sandra.demal@gsara.be/Bruxelles, Belgium, 2009

In this filmed diary, the filmmaker who is traveling through Romania attempts to ask herself, to ask those she talks to, and to ask of all of us about the future of our societies and the possible "middle" between East and West.

Au fond du jardin (At the Back of the Garden) French with English Subtitles

Filmmaker: Lou Vermin/Length: 42:00/Contact: sandra.demal@gsara.be/Bruxelles, Belgium, 2009

The filmmaker asks two long-time friends: a psychologist in palliative care and a teacher for children with difficulties what lead them to these professions they carry out as much for others as for themselves.

U.N.B. FILM PROGRAM

Certificate in Film Production

The Certificate in Film Production is designed to help students develop expertise in all the areas of film including screenwriting, acting, directing, and producing as well as the technical aspects of film and digital video production.

Students participate fully in the production structure of filmmaking in a variety of positions such as camera operator, cinematographer, director and screenwriter, in addition to gaining hands on experience in the post-production process of picture and sound editing.

The program also covers basic film studies, including the history of film, because students making films learn from watching other films and analyzing how they work.

The broad range of the program not only prepares students for a variety of positions but also helps them in making informed choices in pursuing opportunities or specialized training.

Heartbeats

French with English Subtitles

Director/Writer/Producer: Xavier Dolan/Cast: Xavier Dolan, Niels Schneider, Monia Chokri, Anne Dorval/Length: 102:00/Quebec, Canada, 2010

Heartbeats chronicles the seemingly complex bisexual love triangle between three friends, Marie (Monia Chokri), Francis (Xavier Dolan), and Nicolas (Niels Schneider who looks almost exactly like French actor, Louis Garrel). While at a party, Marie and Frankie (Francis) notice Nicolas, a youthful traveler who is a dead ringer for a Greek Adonis. Marie and Frankie soon develop a suggestive relationship with Nicolas which threatens their own friendship as each of them become completely infatuated with him. The three of them share a bed together, but Marie and Frankie's sexual desire for Nicolas is never satisfied. The film delves deeply into the notions of jealousy and centers on the cliché, "three is a crowd".

Documentary Showcase (What is Beauty?)

Sunday – November 7, 2009 – 2:00 PM

Screening Venue: Charlotte Street Arts Centre

Presented By:

Flawed

Director: Andrea Dorfman/Length:12:28/Contact: andrea@andreadorfman.com/ Website: <http://www.andreadorfman.com/index.html/Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada, 2010>

In his anthem 'I was Wrong,' Social Distortion's Mike Ness once asked, "How can you love when you don't love yourself?" That's the question animator Andrea Dorfman confronts in her new short Flawed, produced by the National Film Board of Canada. Using childlike yet sophisticated watercolours to chart an autobiographical tale, she literally paints a charming film about the realization that what makes you flawed is what also makes you interesting.

A Question of Beauty

Director/Writer/Producer: Colleen Furlotte/Length: 89:45/Contact: colleenf@nb.sympatico.ca/Riverview, New Brunswick, Canada, 2010

A Question of Beauty is an independent, NB produced feature length documentary film that challenges beauty stereotypes and celebrates women.

Presented as being wonderfully malleable and self-interpreting, the definition of beauty is examined by a cast of twenty-nine women and girls between the ages of 10 and 77. The film does include one exception to the "all female" cast; an 87 year- old man who was a personal friend of Miss Marilyn Monroe. A Question of Beauty not only honors the inherent beauty of women and girls, but is also a celebration of the beauty of the local community. The Filmmaker will be in attendance

Dog Pound

Director: Kim Chapiron/Writer: Jérémie Delon, Kim Chapiron/Producer: Georges Bermann, Sam Grana/Cast: Adam Butcher, Shane Kippel, Mateo Morales, Alexander Conti/Length: 91:00/New Brunswick, Canada, 2010

Davis, 16 years old, drug trafficking. Angel, 15 years old, auto theft with assault. Butch, 17 years old, assaulting a probation officer. The same sentence: Imprisonment at Enola Vale juvenile delinquent prison. When they arrive at the prison, they must choose sides: victim or executioner.

Dog Pound is a powerful and intelligent film. A roar of compassion with vibrant performances from a young cast that feels honest, raw and fresh.

Some of the New Brunswick Cast are: Tim Turnell, Wally MacKinnon, Robbie O'Neill, Walter Learning, Brian Francis, Shawn Doucette
