Message from the Executive Director NB Filmmakers' Co-operative

Welcome to the 12th edition of the Silver Wave Film Festival. One hundred years ago the Italian film theoretician Ricciotto Canudo described cinema as the Seventh Art, a synthesis of both the spatial and the temporal arts. His manifesto positioned film as a rightful art form distinct from and yet connected to the other more ancient (and respectable) arts. Today, film as an art form is thriving, and what better place to celebrate it than a festival that brings together the filmmakers and the audience.

At the Silver Wave Film Festival each November, we roll out the red carpet to celebrate the works that filmmakers have laboured so diligently to produce. It is an exciting time for the filmmakers, the sponsors, the industry partners and particularly the audience to revel in the excitement of an event that showcases fabulous films by filmmakers from here and away. At its best, film communicates through image and emotion. The screen artists represent cinematic truths about the human condition and through their work we learn a little more about ourselves. Come and celebrate the “plastic arts” in November at Silver Wave as we proudly present a film extravaganza for everyone.

Tony Merzetti, Executive Director, NB Filmmakers' Co-op

Message du Directeur Général de la NB Filmmakers' Cooperative

Bienvenue à la 12^e édition du festival du film Silver Wave. Il y a cent ans, le cinéaste italien théoricien, Ricciotto Canudo décrivait le cinéma comme le “Septième Art”, une synthèse des deux; l'espace et les arts temporels. Son manifeste positionne le film comme une forme d'art légitime distinct et encore connecté aux autres plus anciens (et respectables) arts. Le film, aujourd'hui, en tant que forme d'art est en plein essor, et quel meilleur endroit pour le célébrer qu'un festival qui réunit les cinéastes et le public.

Au festival du film Silver Wave chaque novembre, nous déroulons le tapis rouge pour célébrer les œuvres auxquelles nos cinéastes ont travaillé avec tant de diligence à produire. C'est un moment excitant pour les cinéastes, les commanditaires, les partenaires de l'industrie et plus particulièrement le public qui se délecte d'un événement qui présente des films réalisés par des cinéastes fabuleux d'ici et d'ailleurs. À son meilleur film communique à travers l'image et l'émotion. L' écran de l'artiste représente les vérités cinématographiques sur la condition humaine et à travers leur travail, nous en apprenons un peu plus sur nous-mêmes. Venez célébrer les “arts plastiques” en novembre au Silver Wave qui fièrement encore cette année vous présente un spectacle de films pour tous.

Tony Merzetti, Directeur Exécutif NB Filmmakers' Co-operative

Message from the President NB Filmmakers' Co-operative

Welcome to the 12th Annual Silver Wave Film Festival. The independent film community in New Brunswick is in the midst of a cultural renaissance.

It is not something that happened overnight. It has grown, year by year, over the past 30-35 years. Initially, it started with a few individuals with a common desire to express themselves on film. Now, it has grown into a much larger community of people from all over the province. What has never changed, however, is that we are expressing ourselves in a way that is distinctive to New Brunswick. Every year the number of films shown at the festival grow in ambition, and in quality. Every year there are more and more films that are real pieces of art. New Brunswick art should be art - New Brunswick art.

Festivals, like the Silver Wave Film Festival, help to ensure that our New Brunswick voice will continue to be heard and that this movement will be a successful one. Long after we are gone from this earth, our voice, our art, and our work here, will remain. This is our Poets' Corner.

Enjoy and thank you for your continued support and enthusiasm.

Tim O'Neill, President, NB Filmmakers' Co-operative

Message du Président de la NB Filmmakers' Co-operative

Bienvenue au 12e festival annuel du film Silver Wave. La communauté du cinéma indépendant au Nouveau-Brunswick est au milieu d'une renaissance culturelle.

Ce n'est pas quelque chose qui s'est passé durant la nuit. Il a grandi d'année en année, au cours des 30 - 35 dernières années. Au départ, cela a commencé avec quelques personnes ayant un désir commun de s'exprimer sur le film. Maintenant, il a grandi en une communauté beaucoup plus large, réunissant des gens de partout dans la province. Ce qui n'a jamais changé, cependant, c'est que nous nous exprimons d'une manière qui est propre au Nouveau-Brunswick. Chaque année, le nombre de films présentés au festival grandit en ambition et en qualité et de plus en plus, ont découvre de véritables pièces d'art. L'art du Nouveau-Brunswick.

Festivals, comme le festival du film Silver Wave, contribue à faire en sorte que notre voix Néo-Brunswickoise continue d'être entendue et que ce mouvement continuera d'être un succès. Longtemps après notre départ de cette terre, notre voix, notre art et notre travail ici, restera. C'est notre Coin des Poètes. Profitez-en et nous vous remercions pour votre soutien continuel et votre enthousiasme.

Tim O'Neill, Président, NB Filmmakers' Co-operative

Message from the Vice President NB Filmmakers' Co-operative

Welcome to the 12th edition of the Silver Wave Film Festival. We are very pleased with all the work, effort and time everyone puts into the festival and all the other projects and events undertaken by the Co-op staff, board and membership all year long.

This year, we enjoyed the presence of a major studio production that enabled many of our talented members to show their stuff! Whether near or far away, people who have had the pleasure of working with the NB Film Co-op never forget us for all the right reasons.

The Silver Wave Film Festival is the culminating event that celebrates New Brunswick talent and showcases films from around the world. Silver Wave is also an important cultural event in the film and television community in NB. We hope that you will take away from this festival some new ideas and friendships, and that you will be well entertained. Have a great and wonderful festival!

Donovan Richard, Vice President, NB Filmmakers' Co-op

Message du Vice-Président de la NB Filmmakers' Cooperative

Bienvenue à la 12e édition du Festival de film Silver Wave. Nous sommes très heureux de tout le travail, les efforts et le temps que tout le monde met dans le festival et ainsi que toutes les autres projets et activités entreprises par le personnel de la Co-op, le Conseil et les membres tout au long de l'année.

Cette année, nous avons apprécié la présence d'une production d'un gros studio qui a permis à bon nombre de nos membres de montrer leurs talents! Qu'ils soient près ou loin de nous, les gens, qui ont eu le plaisir de travailler avec la coopérative de Film NB ne nous oublient jamais.

Le Festival de film Silver Wave est le point culminant qui célèbre les talents du Nouveau-Brunswick et met aussi en vedette des films provenant du monde entier. Le Silver Wave est aussi un événement culturel important dans la communauté cinématographique et télévisuelle du NB. Nous espérons que vous prendrez part à ce festival et que vous en sortirez avec de nouvelles idées, d'amitiés et que vous serez bien divertis. Passez un excellent et merveilleux festival!

Message from Premier David Alward

As Premier of New Brunswick, I would like to welcome you to the New Brunswick Silver Wave Film Festival. For the past twelve years, the New Brunswick Silver Wave Film Festival has celebrated short films, feature films and documentaries shot in the province and produced by New Brunswick filmmakers. The festival also helps showcase films from all over the world at various venues in Fredericton.

This year's festival will provide film enthusiasts with an opportunity to see some of the great work our filmmakers have recently produced. Our rich and diverse cultural identity is what helps define us and is a source of pride for New Brunswickers. This festival is a great way to celebrate our New Brunswick successes and to view some outstanding films.

Our province is pleased to see the festival continue to be successful year after year. I would like to commend the New Brunswick Filmmakers Co-operative for leading and organizing this event. Our provincial filmmakers make this celebration of film possible. I would like to thank the many professionals and volunteers who have dedicated their time and effort to making the festival a success.

Honourable Premier David Alward

Un message du premier ministre David Alward

À titre de premier ministre du Nouveau-Brunswick, je vous souhaite la bienvenue au Festival du film Silver Wave du Nouveau-Brunswick. Depuis douze ans, le Festival du film Silver Wave du Nouveau-Brunswick met en vedette les courts-métrages, longs métrages et documentaires filmés dans la province et réalisés par des cinéastes néo-brunswickois. Le festival aide aussi à mettre en valeur des films du monde entier qui seront présentés à divers endroits à Fredericton.

Cette année les cinéphiles auront l'occasion de voir certaines des grandes oeuvres réalisées récemment par des Néo-Brunswickois. Notre identité culturelle riche et diversifiée est ce qui nous aide à nous définir et est une source de fierté pour les Néo-Brunswickois. Le festival est l'occasion idéale de célébrer les succès du Nouveau-Brunswick et de voir d'excellents films.

Notre province est fière du succès que remporte ce festival année après année. Je félicite la New Brunswick Filmmakers' Co-operative d'organiser et de diriger cet événement. Ce sont les cinéastes de notre province qui rendent cette célébration du film possible. Je remercie également les nombreux professionnels et bénévoles qui consacrent temps et efforts afin d'assurer le succès du festival.

L'honorable Premier ministre David Alward

Message from the Mayor of Fredericton

On behalf of my Council colleagues and the citizens of Fredericton, I am pleased to extend a warm welcome to the members of the film industry as well as the patrons attending the Silver Wave Film Festival. The City of Fredericton is proud to support this festival through its Arts, Culture & Heritage Funding Program.

The City of Fredericton prides itself on being a smart, sustainable city offering a world-class business environment and balanced lifestyle with abundant recreational and cultural amenities. Fredericton is internationally and nationally recognized for municipal and community efforts. Together with its community stakeholders, and cultural partners such as the New Brunswick Filmmakers' Co-op, the City of Fredericton is working to be one of the most vibrant, small cities in North America.

This is culture by design! Once again, welcome! We look forward to another successful festival.

Brad Woodside
Mayor, City of Fredericton

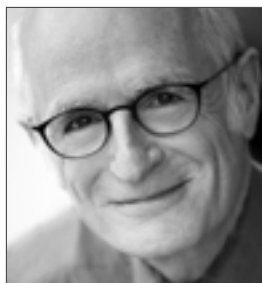

Message du maire de Fredericton

Au nom des membres du conseil municipal et des citoyens de Fredericton, je souhaite la bienvenue aux professionnels de l'industrie cinématographique et aux visiteurs qui assistent au festival de films Silver Wave. La municipalité appuie fièrement ce festival par l'entremise de son Programme de financement des arts, de la culture et du patrimoine.

Fredericton se flatte d'être une ville ingénieuse et durable qui offre un cadre pour les affaires de calibre mondial et un mode de vie équilibré avec de nombreuses installations récréatives et culturelles. Fredericton possède également une réputation internationale et nationale pour les efforts déployés par sa municipalité et sa communauté. En collaboration avec ses partenaires communautaires, comme la New Brunswick Filmmakers' Co-op, l'administration municipale cherche à faire de Fredericton une des petites villes les plus dynamiques en Amérique du Nord.

Ici, la culture est à son meilleur! Encore une fois, bienvenue! À n'en pas douter, le festival sera une réussite cette année encore!

Brad Woodside
Maire, Ville de Fredericton

Tom Perlmutter

Message from the National Film Board

The Silver Wave Film Festival is an outstanding showcase of new and established filmmaking talent, drawn from across New Brunswick, the country and the world.

The National Film Board of Canada (NFB) shares your commitment to Atlantic cinema, working with talented independent filmmakers from our production centres in Moncton and Halifax, as well as from our office in St. John's.

The great cinema can continue even after the Festival ends: I invite you to check out our award-winning productions available online, free of charge, at <NFB.ca> and on our growing family of acclaimed apps.

Have a great festival!

Tom Perlmutter
Government Film Commissioner and Chairperson of the National Film Board of Canada

Message du L'Office national du film du Canada

Le Festival du film Silver Wave est une vitrine exceptionnelle pour mettre en valeur le talent des cinéastes établis et de la relève du Nouveau-Brunswick, ainsi que du reste du pays et du monde.

L'Office national du film du Canada (ONF) partage votre engagement à l'égard du cinéma de l'Atlantique, comme en témoigne sa collaboration avec de talentueux cinéastes indépendants depuis ses centres de production de Moncton et Halifax, et de son bureau de St. John's.

Une fois le Festival terminé, vous n'aurez pas à vous priver de bon cinéma : je vous invite à regarder gratuitement nos productions primées à <ONF.ca> ou sur votre appareil mobile grâce à nos nombreuses applications.

Bon Festival!

Tom Perlmutter
Commissaire du gouvernement à la cinématographie et président de l'Office national du film du Canada

Andrew Cochran

Message from CBC Television

CBC is once again proud to be a sponsor of the Silver Wave Film Festival. Congratulations to the New Brunswick Film Co-op for the invaluable support of the production industry in New Brunswick. And a hearty thanks to all the volunteers who make the Festival a success year after year.

This year our Executive Producer of independent Production, Stewart Young, joins Peter Hall, Senior Manager, Arts, Documentary and Performance Programming at the Festival. Please find them and ask them to talk about how the CBC can be part of your plans for the coming year. We are all looking forward to seeing some great shorts, including the premiere of The Art Of Decay, directed by Jillian Acreman, which was the winner of the 2011 CBC/Telefilm 3-2-1 Award.

And once again we will be presenting another CBC/Telefilm 3-2-1 Award, with new partners Equifilm, CinemaTick and Insurmountable Sounds. We are pleased to help New Brunswick directors and producers produce their next short film for CBC.

We're looking forward to a great Festival!

Andrew Cochran, Managing Director, CBC Maritimes

Message de la télévision de CBC

CBC est fier d'être une fois de plus un commanditaire du Festival de film Silver Wave. Félicitations au New Brunswick Filmmakers cooperative pour leur appui inestimable à l'industrie de la production de cinéma au Nouveau-Brunswick. Et un grand merci à tous les bénévoles qui font de ce festival un grand succès, année après année.

Cette année notre producteur exécutif de la Production indépendante, Stewart Young, se joint à Peter Hall, "Senior Manager, Arts, Documentary and Performance Programming" au festival.

Veillez les trouver et demandez-leur de discuter avec vous comment le CBC peut faire partie de vos plans pour l'avenir. Nous sommes tous impatients de voir les courts métrages, y compris la première de "The Art Of Decay", réalisé par Jillian Acreman, qui a remporté le prix 3-2-1 CBC/Téléfilm 2011.

Et une fois de plus, nous allons présenter un autre prix 3-2-1 CBC/Téléfilm, avec de nouveaux partenaires Equifilm, Cinematick et Insurmountable Sounds. Nous sommes heureux d'aider les réalisateurs et les producteurs du Nouveau-Brunswick à produire leur prochain court-métrage pour le CBC.

Cordialement!

Andrew Cochran, Directeur général, CBC Maritimes

Charlie Zone

Director: Michael Melski/Writer: Joe LeClair, Michael Melski/Producer: Hank White, Michael Melski, Brent Barclay, Tracey Boulton/Cast: Glen Gould, Amanda Crew, Mpho Koaho, Pasha Ebrahimi, Cindy Sampson/Length: 102:00/Contact: hankwhite@gmail.com/website: http://www.charliezonethemovie.com/Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada

A gritty urban kidnapping drama with a strong First Nations flavour. Charlie Zone stars Glen Gould as a washed-up Aboriginal boxer reduced to fighting amateur YouTube bouts while holding down a labouring job on the Halifax waterfront. Spotted on the Internet for his still-potent fighting prowess, he's hired by a mysterious woman who claims to represent a family that wants its adopted daughter back from a heroin den in the North End (the 'Charlie Zone' of the title). What appears to be a simple crime story darkens and deepens, as the kidnappee (Amanda Crew) has her own hidden agenda.

Drink 'Em Dry

Director: Sheldon Garland/Writer: Jon Mann/Producer: Tom Mann/Length: 48:48/Contact: tommann42@gmail.com/Fredericton, New Brunswick, Canada, 2012

A candid and progressive view of union solidarity which developed despite tremendous odds in Saint John, NB. When Moosehead Breweries pushed away from the negotiating table and locked out its members of Local 362, the union was stunned. Not only by the lockout but the seeming rejection of their company loyalty which had sustained them, the company and the community for 144 years. The film is narrated by Raj Patel, New York Times Bestselling Author of "Stuffed and Starved" and "The Value of Nothing" features.

Be... Without Water? The Sequel

Director/Producer: Rob Turgeon/Length: 58:00/Contact: ahv@nb.aibn.com/Kingston, New Brunswick, Canada, 2012

This sequel follows the linked stories of the water loss of sixty families in Penobscis due to potash mining operations, and the efforts of the anti-shale gas movement to preserve safe drinking water in New Brunswick.

We are witnesses to the birth of a new potash mining operation (Atlantic Potash Corp.) and the concern as to whether yet more citizens will be losing their water, and what compensation if any will be offered. A surprising turn of events is in the cards for Penobscis, as they continue to fight for compensation due to their sinking properties under which the Potash Corp. of Saskatchewan (head office in Chicago) is actively mining.

When the Tree (Vaghti Derakht)

Director/Writer: Sara Khalili/Producer: Int. Arts Festival of resistance/Length: 6:00/Contact: info@sendyourfilm.com/Tehran, Iran, 2012

In the chaotic atmosphere of a city, people run, homeless and fearful, eyes closed and scattered in different corners. In the midst of all this, a man and a woman come face to face. Upon their meeting, the city atmosphere disappears and sounds die down. The man and woman approach each other with zeal and skepticism, when all of a sudden an apple tree appears in their midst. The presence of the tree draws the couples' attention to themselves, creating for them a setting not unlike that of Adam and Eve.
